

Harrison County Community Foundation

Products and Services Endorsement Policy

Adopted March 3, 2003

As an exempt 501(c)3 not-for-profit serving all persons and corporations of our community, the Harrison County Community Foundation (HCCF) will not promote or endorse the services or products of any individual or corporation. Similarly, any purchase, contract, or utilization of services with an entity by the HCCF does not constitute an endorsement nor shall any such relationship provide consent for the entity to use the name of HCCF, individual members of the board of directors, or any staff member in the promotion or marketing of services or products. HCCF may be listed as a customer in marketing or promotional materials only after obtaining written permission and only if the material includes a disclaimer that HCCF does not endorse the company, product or service over any competitor.
